

Georgia Campus Sustainability Meeting Agenda

June 11, 2010

Room 211 C of the Professional Sciences Center
Macon State College, Macon, GA

10:30 am to 11:00 am	Check-in, Coffee and Fruit Service
11:00 am to 11:05 am	Welcome to Macon State College – Nancy Stroud, Interim Vice President for Fiscal Affairs at Macon State College
11:05 am to 11:20 am	Introductions and Purpose of the Meeting
11:20 am to 11:40 am	Georgia's Energy Future and Introduction to Climate Action Planning – Carly Queen, Southeast Campus Field Coordinator for the National Wildlife Federation
11:40 am to 12:15 pm	Climate Action Planning Case Study and Discussion – Dr. Robert Paul, Professor of Biology and Director of Sustainability at Kennesaw State University
12:15 pm to 12:45 pm	Students in Action: engaging the student body in campus and community sustainability – Dr. Lissa Leege, Professor of Biology and Director of the Center for Sustainability at Georgia Southern University
12:45 pm to 1:30 pm	Lunch and Networking
1:30 pm to 1:45 pm	Governor's Energy Challenge – Andrea Schroer, State Energy Project Manager for Georgia Environmental Facilities Authority (GEFA)
1:45 pm to 2:15 pm	Financing Sustainability – Kevin Kirsche, Director of Sustainability at the University of Georgia to present on the Student "Green" Fee and discussion of other funding options
2:15 pm to 2:50 pm	Integrating Sustainability across the Curriculum – Dr. Robert Paul, Professor of Biology and Director of Sustainability at Kennesaw State University
2:50 pm to 3:00 pm	Break
3:00 pm to 3:30 pm	Discussion of Challenges and Opportunities for Collaboration on Georgia Campuses – facilitated by Sandra Neuse, Assistant Vice Chancellor of Compliance and Operations for the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia
3:30 pm to 4:00 pm	Next Steps – discussion of ideas and plans for accelerating progress on Georgia campus sustainability initiatives facilitated by Carly Queen of the National Wildlife Federation

For more information, please contact: Carly Queen, 404-312-2860, queenc@nwf.org